

AHSSC Monthly Meeting Agenda

Emotional Health in Living with a Chronic Condition on Patients and Caregivers

- Recognition of the emotional and psychological impacts of being diagnosed and living with a chronic health condition
- Social and cultural implications of chronic illnesses on patients and caregivers, with an emphasis on the immigrant population
- Intervention strategies that are culturally relevant to enhance self-efficacy in patients and caregivers

Date: Friday, April 17, 2015

Time: 9am – 11:15am

Location: Charles B. Wang Community Health Center
168 Centre Street, 3rd Floor
New York, NY 10013

9:00 Breakfast/Networking

9:30 Welcome Remarks:
Teresa Lin, President of AHSSC

9:40 Main Presentations:
My-Lan Tran, LCSW-R
Manager, LANtern (Lupus Asian Network)
Hospital for Special Surgery

Yuen Shan (Manna) Chan-Espin, LCSW
Director of Social Work Department
Charles B. Wang Community Health Center

11:00 Agency Sharing

11:15 Meeting Adjourn