

Social Service Needs Of NYC'S Aging Immigrant Communities

New York City has the largest foreign-born senior population of any city in the United States. Senior immigrants now account for 46% of the city's senior population and will become the majority within 5 years. This workshop will explore programs available to immigrant senior citizens in New York City and the community-based service providers that attempt to identify and serve these immigrant communities.

WHEN: March 31, 2016

WHERE: Hostos Community College
120 Walton Ave @ 149TH Street
Bronx, N.Y. 10451
Multipurpose Room

TIME: 1:30 – 4:00 PM

RSVP: JAMES C. O'NEAL
CHAIR, DIVERSITY COMMITTEE
STATE SOCIETY ON AGING
joneal1306@gmail.com

INVITED GUESTS:

HOSTOS COMMUNITY COLLEGE – PRESIDENT'S OFFICE &/OR OFFICE OF ACADEMIC AFFAIRS

DEPARTMENT FOR THE AGING: Caryn Resnick PhD
Deputy Commissioner

THE MAYOR'S OFFICE OF IMMIGRANT AFFAIRS:
Stephanie Fernandez Deputy Commissioner

DISCUSSION PANELISTS

Evelyn Laureano, PhD
President & CEO,
Neighborhood SHOPP

Vasundhara Kalasapundi, MD
Founder, India Home

Betty K. Cheng, LCSW, COO
Charles B Wang Community
Health Center

Marc Frederic, LCSW
AVP Social Services,
RiverSpring at Home

Presentation

The New Face of
New York's Seniors

Christian Gonzalez-Rivera,
Author, Center for an Urban Future
Co-Chair Student Committee
NY State Society on Aging

Questions & Answers

James C. O'Neal, Chair
Diversity Committee
NY State Society on Aging

Prof. Eunice Flemister
Co-Chair Student Committee
NY State Society on Aging

Light refreshments will be served

Student Activities